

Board Member Bio

Terri Kershisnik

Terri Kershisnik moved to Highlands Ranch in 1982 to pioneer in a new community with Mission Viejo Company, who had a vision, money and a track record.

She shares the reasons she enjoys Highlands Ranch, which include the sense of community and the fact it is a planned development. Terri wants to make a difference as a board member by using her financial expertise to “make sure we are in good stead as we move from development districts to an ongoing operating district.”

A Vice President with Shea Homes, Terri is also involved with other special district boards, the Regis Jesuit High School parent group and Archdiocesan Housing.
